perfecting island holidays for more than 60 years

WHY BOOK BEACHCOMBER

A name with a history. The first hotel in the group was established in 1952. In the late '70s the brand Beachcomber was launched. Expertise comes with experience and know-how that only a solid historic foundation can provide and Beachcomber is proud to have it all.

Pioneers and leaders of the Mauritian tourism industry. Founded by Mauritian families, Beachcomber occupies premium beachfront sites along the west coast, where the best weather is to be found along with the best beaches, and stunning sunsets end each perfect day.

A legacy of Mauritian lifestyle. The Mauritian lifestyle of outdoor living, beachside dining and warm hospitality is maintained at all hotels.

More rooms mean more choice. Beachcomber Hotels operates eight superior leisure resorts in Mauritius and one private island property in Seychelles. With a total of more than 2 000 rooms in the four- and five-star categories, there is a hotel to suit your style in this portfolio.

Social responsibility and environmental protection are carefully adhered to. Not only are the friendly and efficient staff the beneficiaries of social responsibility programmes, many educational institutions also receive training as part of the effort. When Trou aux Biches was rebuilt, a great deal of attention was paid to environmental protection, such as water recycling and waste disposal as well as solar heating.

South Africans love Beachcomber. The brand is top-of-mind in this country and the majority of tourist arrivals in Mauritius are Beachcomber clients.

Buying power means strength. Beachcomber is able to pre-purchase airline seat allocation during peak periods, making your life easier with hassle-free bookings, a choice of departure dates and quick confirmation.

Settle for value. Your package includes so many items, such as a fantastic choice of dining in different restaurants at each hotel and a range of land and water sports. Enjoy luxury rejuvenating treatments at the Spas by Clarins and other wellness centres at the hotels.

Optional all-inclusive packages. Beachcomber's four-star hotels all offer optional all-inclusive packages covering all meals and most drinks. Shandrani is uniquely fully inclusive, offering a full five-star service with everything included, even the mini-bar. Further top-up packages are available at certain other five-star-plus resorts. Sainte Anne Resort and Spa in Seychelles offers an optional all-inclusive package.

Kids are king. Family holidays are perfect, with a magical atmosphere being created for children in every aspect of their holiday. Each hotel has its own unique clubhouse where they will find a variety of games and playground equipment. Professionals in child care take the children on exciting excursions and organise entertainment for them, including treasure hunts, sandcastle building competitions and a favourite is cooking lessons.

MAURITIUS

Mauritius lies like a rich green emerald in the turquoise velvet of the Indian Ocean. Reached from South Africa by daily flights, it has all the elements of the ultimate escape at a price you can afford. Mauritius is a sophisticated tourist destination. Quality and high standards apply to every aspect of the infrastructure - accommodation, food and service in the hotels, sightseeing, transportation and attractions. Shoppers can find good-value and high-quality goods. The people are welcoming, warm and friendly. Their pride in this new-age island republic is reflected in their prosperity and good standard of living. Mauritius's greatest assets as a holiday destination are its beautiful white, sandy beaches, naturally protected by a coral reef that encircles almost the entire island. The clear, calm waters off the coast make conditions ideal for all kinds of water sports, which include scuba diving, snorkelling, windsurfing and waterskiing.

Mauritius is a year-round destination. Temperatures during the warm, dry months between April and October are normally in the mid-twenties, rising to the upper-twenties in the summer months between November and March. During the summer months, tropical weather may cause storms and heavy rain, occasionally resulting in a cyclone.

west is best

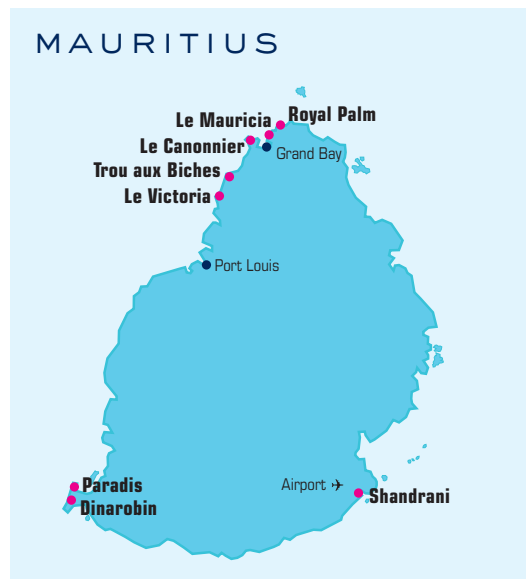

The most equable climate is to be found on the west coast of Mauritius. Seven of Beachcomber's eight properties are located along this coast, with the eighth hotel occupying a prime location near the airport. Generally the weather is warm and sunny ensuring year-round holiday enjoyment.

Dress is cool and casual - beachwear for the day and smart-casual clothes for the evenings. Gentlemen are required to wear long trousers and closed shoes in the evenings. During the cooler months, jackets or light sweaters for evening wear are recommended.

qr codes

Quick Response two-dimensional barcode. Simply scan with a smartphone. The link will redirect you to gorgeous photo galleries of the hotel you are interested in. It's instant access to rich-media content and provides you with a virtual escape.

You will need a QR code reader, which can be downloaded for free on most smartphones through your provider's app store.

SEYCHELLES

The Seychelles archipelago, four degrees south of the equator, is recognized as one of the world's most unspoilt natural havens, where many rare species of flora and fauna still thrive untouched by modern threats to the environment.

The Seychelles comprises 115 islands scattered over 1.3-million square kilometres of the Indian Ocean. The contrast in scenery is remarkable as it varies between the lush green vegetation of the granitic islands, and the barren landscape of the coralline islands.

The appeal of the islands is universal, whether it is to the visitor seeking peace and tranquillity in luxurious surroundings, the environmentally aware who will study the uniqueness of the region, the seafaring set who will take to the ocean in catamarans and yachts, or the serious explorer who will venture to the far-flung islands where very few have been before.

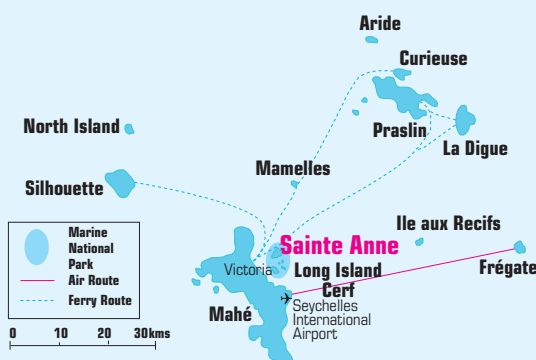

It is into this environment that Beachcomber Hotels has taken its expertise, developing an upmarket hotel, managed with the same quality and outstanding service that have earned Beachcomber a reputation as the premier hotel operator in the Indian Ocean region.

when to go

The temperatures vary only slightly, between 24 and 33 degrees celsius. The gentle north-west trade winds blow between November and April. During this time the weather is hot and sea conditions are generally calm. Between May and October the south-east trade winds bring cooler, dry weather.

BEACHCOMBER KIDS

Beachcomber Hotels place a strong emphasis on family holidays. While adults will appreciate the best standards of quality and service, the young VIPs are catered for equally well and are not forgotten when it comes to entertainment, meals and activities. Evening events are planned to keep young guests enthralled while their parents are dining. The hotels have programmes planned for each day at the mini clubs. They might include fishing excursions or sandcastle building or, in hot weather, indoor games will be encouraged during the heat of the day. Cooking is a great favourite with the children, with a hotel chef guiding them through easy recipes.

Holiday time is the best for learning new sports and skills. Experienced staff at Beachcomber's hotels will assist with coaching in water-skiing, sailing or windsurfing, while a host of arts and crafts activities will inspire and delight.

Teenagers are also catered for at some of the Beachcomber hotels - a specific programme caters for this age group during popular school holiday periods. Special disco evenings are planned or the teenagers will gather for sporting activities. Sporting events during the day are also organised. Excursions outside the hotel may also be offered and places of interest will be visited. The young and enthusiastic staff will supervise any of the activities planned. Certain hotels have designated teen areas but the numbers fluctuate according to school holidays.

Beachcomber's Bob Marlin Kids' Clubs are all housed in specially built, child-friendly 'houses', equipped with every toy, game and facility to appeal to the young. Activities are geared for two age groups - from three to six years and with a different focus for the seven to twelve-year-olds.

Bob Marlin Kids' Club staff members are well experienced in child minding and entertainment, and are qualified to deal with any problem or emergency. Most of them are multilingual for ease of communication with the cosmopolitan collection of youthful guests.

Bob Marlin is open daily from after breakfast until nine or, in some cases, eleven o'clock at night. Lunch is at an extra cost, except at Shandrani or where parents have pre-paid for a fully inclusive package and dinner is provided featuring dishes that particularly appeal to children*.

Depending on the time of year, and mainly during the school holidays, individual hotels may plan special meals and theme evenings such as a fancy dress, a Halloween party or a Sega evening. At dinner time Bob Marlin staff will accompany their small charges to one of the hotel's restaurants where a suitable menu will be served*.

Children are well catered for by members of the boathouse staff. They will patiently teach them to water-ski, to sail or windsurf. Tennis and golf lessons form part of the daily activities for older children.

Children have an excellent opportunity to master the art of sailing at Shandrani, where an internationally recognised sailing course is available at an extra charge.

*Depending on the meal package purchased.

PLACES TO VISIT

Although Mauritius is a small island, its contrasting scenery ranges from the drier regions of the north-west coast to the lush green of the east coast. A spine of dramatic volcanic mountains cuts through the central area, dictating the change in prevailing weather conditions. There is so much to see with something to appeal to everyone, whether you're young, old, sporty or relaxed, adventurous, inquisitive or acquisitive. Take time during your holiday to appreciate the natural beauty, the history and geography and meet the people of Mauritius. Consult the Mautourco representative or concierge at your hotel for reservations.

Visit this authentic completely restored sugar factory and discover the fascinating world of sugar. The exhibits take you back in time to let you understand the extent to which the history of Mauritius is so strongly linked to the sugar industry.

explore the island

leisurely sightseeing

If a comfortable air-conditioned coach with picture windows is more your scene, there is a wonderful world to be explored. Visit the famous botanical gardens of Pamplemousses to see the giant Victoria Regia water lilies and the rare Talipot Palm. Visit Grand Bassin, mountain lakes that are a place of pilgrimage for Hindus. See the mighty cascades of the Black River Gorges and the fauna that inhabit the natural vegetation. Take to the cities and wander among the streets filled with tiny shops and large markets. Let the locals charm you with their island lifestyle.

exploring on horseback

The wonderfully scenic areas of Mauritius are ideal for exploring on horseback. Vieille Cheminée at Chamarel is in the south near Le Morne, where horseback trails explore fields, plantations and rivers. Near Grand Bay, the Leisure Park in the north offers riding over a 692-hectare estate. The fee includes a visit to the property, the services of a professional instructor and refreshments.

big game fishing

The Marlin fishing season is at its best between November and April, but there is a lot to entertain the big game fisherman all year round.

shopping excursions

Take a chauffeur-driven car, rent a car or join a tour and hit the shops! You can visit the Big Bazaar, a fair in the town of Quatre Bornes, visit the boutiques of the Caudan Waterfront or cross the street to the Port Louis market. In Grand Bay visit the Grand Bay Bazaar or interrupt your shopping experience with coffee, a drink or a meal at one of the many small restaurants. A full-day tour will take you to a model ship factory, and to many factory shops in the shopping precinct of Curepipe. For a more conventional shopping experience, be sure to visit the newly developed Bagatelle Mall.

catamaran cruises

Catamarans head north from Grand Bay to Ilot Gabrielle, from Shandrani to Ile aux Cerfs or south from Tamarin Bay towards Ilot Benitiers, a small island off the west coast of Mauritius. Each boat carries snorkelling equipment, and a delicious barbecue lunch is prepared by the crew.

quad biking and zip-lining

Exciting attractions in Mauritius are quad biking and zip-lining at different sites with breathtaking views in nature reserves round the island. A fleet of two-seater quad bikes is available for visitors, who don helmets and whiz through the lush vegetation, over rivers and through streams at an exhilarating pace. Zip-lines thrill visitors with magnificent views over the tree tops. These are ideal activities for the group and incentive market.

GROUPS & INCENTIVES

Mauritius and Seychelles are ideal destinations for group and incentive travel. Daily flight connections from Johannesburg and Cape Town add to the accessibility of Mauritius. Seychelles is now served by between two and three return flights per week from Johannesburg.

Beachcomber is a forerunner in this market and has a sophisticated infrastructure backed by the highest standards of service and efficiency. The hotels are fully geared to host groups and incentives and many companies have returned to Beachcomber repeatedly. Beachcomber Tours in South Africa has a department dedicated to the organisation of group bookings, staffed by professionals in the field. All arrangements are handled with the utmost care and attention to detail, guaranteeing the success of the project.

All-inclusive and fully inclusive packages for groups at all hotels, except Royal Palm, are available throughout the year, bar prime season. Ask your travel consultant to assist with details for great money-saving ideas.

beachcomber's all-inclusive options

All-inclusive and fully inclusive rates for groups have been widely endorsed by the South African market. While many hotels in Mauritius offer all-inclusive rates, the content of Beachcomber's package is far more extensive than any other. The beverage selection includes a wide range of brands, while food choices are extensive and reflect quality.

No expense is spared to create lavish settings for special functions in the expansive grounds of each hotel. Magical themes are centre stage for colourful décor and menus to match.

19 Airline information

Baggage allowance is stated on each airline ticket. Clients are reminded that they are responsible for reconfirmation of flights more than 72 hours prior to departure and to ensure that the airline has had no schedule or time changes.
